Getting Started

- 1) Are their times in your life or are you in a season of difficulty? Explain.

- 2) Have you voiced your confusion or disappointment to God?

- 3) If we think about it, we often can identify specific occasions when God has supplied exactly what we needed at exactly the right time. As a group have each person write down five examples of how the Father has provided for you in the past.

4) Read Numbers 11

Is it possible your journey through the wilderness has resulted in a resentful or embittered spirit toward God? If so, perhaps you sense God’s corrective hand of discipline in your life. Read Proverbs 3:11-12

5) Read Psalm 40:3-5

When you are passing through a season of prolonged waiting, confusion, or pain, more than anything, your Father can be trusted.

Perhaps the most powerful prayer you can offer are three words. “I trust you”. Could it be that not only is this the prayer God most desires to hear, but the prayer that your heart most desperately desires to pray? Discuss this as a group.

Digging Deeper

- 6) If you are experiencing God’s loving hand of discipline, know that He desires this correction to return your heart to Him. Take some time to write out a confession and to renew your commitment to God.
